

ONE-DAY LOCK-UP: St Ignatius Year 12 students Giani Magliani, Max Hamra and John Swan, rear, and Emily Peacock, Nathan Dignam and Leah Mazzone-Brown. Picture: TOM HUNTLEY

TIM WILLIAMS

SAINT Ignatius College students will lock themselves in a cage for 24 hours with no food, phones or furniture to draw attention to the plight of Palestinian refugees in Syria.

Twenty Year 12 students will enter the cage at lunch-time today. The student-run event has been organised by Saint Ignatius' social justice committee for Refugee Week.

The group is raising awareness of the Yarmouk Palestinian refugee camp in the Syrian capital Damascus, where thousands have been starved of food and resources in the midst of Syria's civil war. Sponsorship from staff and students has so far raised $1500 for the Jesuit Refugee Service.

